SANITATION DISTRICTS OF LOS ANGELES COUNTY HOST EARTH DAY CELEBRATION
Earth Day 2012 Features Free Family Fun

Whittier, CA - Join the Sanitation Districts on Saturday, April 14 for Earth Day 2012, an event that features fun and educational activities for all ages. Tour a water reclamation plant and/or landfill, take a train ride that follows the journey of your trash from home to recycling center to landfill, attend gardening and composting workshops, create eco-friendly arts and crafts, and participate in many other activities while learning about environmental issues. Furthermore, over 50 exhibitors will be present to provide information and demonstrations on ways to help protect the planet.

Earth Day 2012 will be held from 10 a.m. – 2 p.m. at the Sanitation Districts' Administrative Office Parking Lot, located at 1955 Workman Mill Road in Whittier. Event parking with shuttle service will be located at 13181/13191 Crossroads Parkway North. The event is free and over 3,000 people are expected to attend. For more information about Earth Day 2011, please visit www.lacsdc.org.

The Sanitation Districts are a regional agency consisting of 23 independent special districts serving over 5 million people in 78 cities and the unincorporated territory within Los Angeles County. The Sanitation Districts protect public health and the environment through innovative and cost-effective wastewater and solid waste management, and in doing so convert waste into resources such as reclaimed water, energy, and recycled materials.
